Laws of the United States.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 81.]

An Act for the collection of direct taxes in insurrectionary districts within the United States and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when in any State or Territory, or in any portion of any State or Territory, by reason of insurrection or rebellion, the civil authority of the Government of the United States is obstructed so that the provisions of the act entitled "An act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, for assessing, levying and collecting the direct taxes therein mentioned, cannot be peaceably executed, the said direct taxes by said act apportioned among the several States and Territories respectively, shall be apportioned and charged in each State or Territory, or part thereof, wherein the civil authority is thus obstructed, upon all the lands and lots of ground situate therein respectively, except such as are exempt from taxation by the laws of said State or of the United States, as the said lands or lots of ground were enumerated and valued under the last assessment and valuation thereof made under the authority of said State or Territory previous to the first day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-one; and each and every of the said lots [illegible] is hereby declared to be, by virtue of this act, charged with the payment of so much of the whole tax laid and apportioned by said act upon the State or Territory wherein the same is respectively situate as shall bear the same direct proportion to the whole amount of the direct tax apportioned to said State or Territory as the value of said parcels of land shall respectively bear to the whole valuation of the real estate in said State or Territory, according to the said assessment and valuation made under the authority of the same; and in addition thereto a penalty of fifty per centum of said tax shall be charged thereon.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That on or before the first day of July next, the President, by his proclamation, shall declare in what States and parts of States said insurrection exists, and thereupon the said several lots or parcels of land shall become charged respectively with their respective portions of said direct tax, and the same, together with the penalty, shall be a lien thereon, without any other or further proceeding whatever.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the owners of said lots or parcels of land, within sixty days after the tax commissioners hereinafter named shall have fixed the amount [illegible] to pay the tax thereon [illegible] upon the same respectively into the Treasury of the United States, [illegible] and take a certificate thereof, by virtue whereof the said lands shall be discharged from said tax.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the title of, in and to each and every piece or parcel of land upon which said tax has not been paid as above provided, shall thereupon become forfeited to the United States, and upon the sale hereinafter provided for shall vest in the United States or in the purchasers at such sale, in fee simple, free and discharged from all prior liens, incumbrances, right, title and claim whatsoever.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, may appoint a board of three tax commissioners for each of said States in which said insurrection exists, with a salary of three thousand dollars each per annum, to give security to the Secretary of the Treasury [illegible] dollars each, in such form as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct, and to be approved by him, for the faithful performance of all their duties as such, and to account for and pay over all moneys and other property coming to their hands. Provided, That said commissioners shall not receive pay under the provisions of this act until they shall have entered upon the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said board of tax commissioners shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of their office whenever the commanding general of the forces of the United States, entering into any such insurrectionary State or district, shall have established the military authority of the United States throughout any parish or district or county of the same, and they shall open one or more offices for the transaction of business.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said board of commissioners shall be required, in case the taxes charged upon the said lots and parcels of land shall not be paid as provided for in the third section of this act, to cause the same to be advertised for sale in a newspaper published in the town, parish, district or county where same lies, and if there be no such newspaper published in said county, or if the publisher thereof refuse to publish the same, then in any other newspaper to be selected by said commissioners in said district, or in the city of Washington, for at least four weeks, and by posting notices of sale in three public places in town, parish, district, or county within which said lands are situate, at least four weeks previous to the day of sale, and at the time and place of sale to cause the same to be severally sold to the highest bidder for a sum not less than the taxes, penalty and cost, and ten per centum per annum interest on said tax, pursuant to said notice; and the said commissioners shall, at said sale, strike off the same severally to the United States at that sum, unless some person shall bid the same or a larger sum, who shall, upon paying the purchase money in gold and silver coin, or in the Treasury notes of the United States, or in certificates of indebtedness against the United States, be entitled to receive from said commissioners their certificate of sale, which said certificate shall be received in all courts and places as prima facie evidence of the regularity and validity of said sale, and of the title of the said purchaser or purchasers under the same. Provided, That the owner of said lots of ground, or any loyal person of the United States, having any valid lien upon or interest in the same, may at any time within sixty days after said sale, appear before the said board of tax commissioners in his or her own proper person, and, if a citizen, upon taking an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and paying the amount of said tax and penalty, with interest thereon from the date of the said proclamation of the President mentioned in the second section of this act, at the rate of fifteen per centum per annum, together with the expenses of the sale and subsequent proceeding, to be determined by said commissioners, may redeem said lots of land from said sale, and any purchaser under the same, having paid moneys, Treasury notes, or other certificates of indebtedness of the United States shall, upon such redemption being made, be entitled to have the same, with interest accruing, after said sale, returned to him by said commissioners upon surrendering up the certificate of sale. And provided further, That if the owner of said lots of ground shall be a minor, a non-resident alien, or loyal citizen beyond the seas, or a person of unsound mind, or under a legal disability, the guardian, trustee, or other person having charge of the person or estate of such person may redeem the same at any time within two years after the sale thereof, in the manner above provided, and with like effect. And provided further, That the certificate of said commissioners shall only be affected as evidence of the regularity and validity of sale by establishing the fact that said property was not subject to taxes, or that the taxes had been paid previous to sale, or that the property had been redeemed according to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That at any time within one year after the said sale by said commissioners, any person, being the owner of any lot or parcel of land at the passage of this act, who shall by sufficient evidence prove to the satisfaction of said board of commissioners that he or she, after the passage of this act, has not taken part in the present insurrection against the United States, or in any manner aided or abetted the same, and that by reason of said insurrection he or she has been unable to pay said tax, or to redeem said lands from sales within the time above provided for, the said board of commissioners may allow him or her further time to redeem the same, not exceeding two years from the day of sale; and for this purpose they may take the testimony of witnesses and shall reduce the same to writing; and the United States, or any person claiming an interest in said lands, may oppose said application; and from their decision the United States or any party in interest may appeal to the district court of the United States for said district, which is hereby authorized to [illegible] the party [illegible] redemption. And in case said board of commissioners shall [illegible] the expiration of [illegible] sale, the said district court shall have original jurisdiction of the proceeding for redemption as herein provided, to take place before the said board of commissioners.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That whenever the owners of said lots or parcels of ground [illegible] and have not paid the tax thereon [illegible] the same [illegible] and the said commissioners shall [illegible] the United States [illegible]

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, [illegible] the President may be authorized [illegible] in the United States [illegible] not to exceed three hundred and twenty acres [illegible] at public sale [illegible] upon the sale of other public lands of the United States [illegible] sixty days, and to issue certificates thereof [illegible] at any such sale [illegible] bid off in the name of the United States, or any person who [illegible] his intention [illegible] any person who shall have faithfully served [illegible] either as a private soldier or sailor in the army, navy, or marine service of the United States, as a volunteer [illegible] for the term of three months, [illegible] and if upon such sale any person serving in the army, navy or marine corps shall pay one fourth part of the purchase money, a certificate shall be [illegible] and he shall have the term of three years in which to pay the remainder, either in money or in certificates of indebtedness of the United States; and any citizen of the United States, or any person who shall have declared his intention to become such, being the head of a family, [illegible] living in the State or district where said land [illegible] and not the owner of any other lands, [illegible] as may be established by said board of commissioners [illegible] the right to enter upon and acquire the rights of pre-emption to such lands as may be [illegible] the United States [illegible] commissioners under the direction of the President [illegible] for such purpose.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of said leases and sales shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, one fourth of which shall be paid over to the Governor of said State wherein said lands are situated, or his authorized agent, when such insurrection shall be put down and the people shall elect a Legislature and State officers who shall take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and such fact shall be proclaimed by the President, for the purpose of reimbursing the loyal citizens of said State, or for such other purposes as said State may direct, and one fourth shall also be paid [illegible] as a fund to aid in the colonization or emigration from said State of any free person of African descent who may desire to remove therefrom to Hayti, Liberia, or any other State or Colony.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That in case the records of assessment and valuation of the lots of land [illegible] first section of this act shall be destroyed, [illegible] not come within the possession of the said board of commissioners, they shall be authorized [illegible] the same, or to value and assess the same in their own judgment upon such evidence as may appear to them, and a mistake in the valuation of the same, or in the amount of tax thereon, shall in any manner whatever affect the validity of the sale of the same or of any of the proceedings relative thereto.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the said tax commissioners shall keep a book or books, in which they shall enter the amount or quota of said direct tax assessed [illegible] each tract or parcel of land, which said amounts shall be distinctly stated in the advertisement, [illegible] together with a description of the tract, and an entry shall be made in said book or books of each tract sold, together with the name of the purchaser, and the sum for which the same may [illegible] attested transcripts of said books [illegible] by said commissioners, and said books, when their commission shall expire, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and the transcripts and copies of said books [illegible] certified by the Secretary of the Treasury shall be evidence in any court in the United States. The said commissioners may employ a clerk, whose compensation shall be twelve hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the thirteenth section of the act of August fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, "An act to provide increased revenue from imports, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," shall be so construed as not to exempt from taxation property above the value of five hundred dollars, but to exempt from taxation property of the value of five hundred dollars or less, owned by individuals, notwithstanding the provisions therein.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, June 7, 1862.

A NOVEL SCENE.—A member of the Massachusetts Thirteenth regiment, writing a day or two after the battle of Cedar Mountain, speaks as follows of the proceedings subsequent to the battle:

"Day before yesterday the battle field was under the white flag, and open to all parties. It was a novel sight to see the Yankee 'mudsills' and the Secesh lying on the grass side by side, debating the war question. Then you would see a group of four playing euchre—two of our soldiers against two of theirs. The two armies, for the time being, were on the most friendly terms. There was no danger of disturbance, as no arms were allowed in the field by either party."

DR. HAYES, in a private letter speaking of his recent Arctic voyage, says:

"One thing does not appear to have been noticed, which is of some national importance, though of none commercially. The land which I discovered and surveyed during this cruise is the most northern land known on the globe. I have traced it to 82° 40', and have planted the flag of the Union (with not a single star erased) upon it."

GOOD ON THE CHANGE.—The editor of the Saratoga Republican tells the following at his own expense: "Yesterday, wishing like others to evince our patriotism, we informed the six compositors in our office, that if they would enlist we would pay them half wages while they were gone to the war. They replied: 'That is more than we ever had before,' and the whole crowd enlisted. 'That's what's the matter.'"

PARSON BROWNLOW'S OPINION.—It is stated that Parson Brownlow has written an article for the New York Weekly, in favor of freeing, arming and enlisting such slaves as reach our lines, as being, in his opinion, the necessary and only resource for the safety of the Union cause.

BRECKINRIDGE.—Breckinridge's sword, with his name engraved thereon, was captured at Baton Rouge. This may have given rise to the report that he lost his right arm, as most men would as lief lose their sword while they had an arm to wield it.

SECESSION IN SWITZERLAND.—The Italian canton of Ticino threatens to secede from the Swiss Confederation, and the General Diet is determined to prevent such withdrawal.

The Emigration

We are [illegible] many of the new comers to Oregon settling in the Willamette valley, most of them prepared to go to work in their respective callings to improve and add strength to communities where they may settle. We think our people generally will take them by the hand of welcome and aid them by kind offices and by substantial means when required, thus making them feel as little as possible the difference between their former and present homes. We learn of [illegible] who are poor and in want, most of them being independent in their circumstances.

There was a time when an arrival of emigrants from the States was sensibly felt as a matter of interest by every one in Oregon.—All strove to be foremost in acts of kindness. Money was freely expended in provisions for their benefit and agents were sent out hundreds of miles to meet them. Fresh teams were furnished to relieve their jaded animals. This was done by the humane as a free gift of charity, and those who had suffered themselves in getting to this [illegible] land were most active in the work of benevolence. But the sufferings of the early emigrants served as a beacon to warn others of the dangers. For years, those who have ventured across have been better provided, so that now there is little occasion for that kind of assistance, and hence there is less attention shown them than formerly, and most persons now seem to treat them with mere curiosity and indifference.

They find here an old country instead of a wilderness. They find new people and few of the old sort to meet and welcome them.—The attention they receive is generally accompanied by motives of pure selfishness from a class whose calling and nature it is to "take in strangers," in a sense quite the reverse of the hospitality of the genuine old Oregonians. They will be fortunate if they obtain farms and employment so as to meet their expectations. Were we to offer them advice, it would be to look around, wait awhile, make comparisons of the different localities, be well satisfied and then pitch in.' No country in the world pays more for labor of all kinds; no other country improves faster in all the elements of true progress. They have come to the right country if their aims and objects are honorable, and they are willing to help build up the county by industry and honest fidelity to Oregon's best interests.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS GENERALS.—A correspondent of the Boston Transcript writes from Washington:

Mr. Lincoln declared to ex-Governor Dennison, of Ohio, on Saturday, that he wanted the [illegible] who had complained of him to know that he now leaves everything of a military nature in the hands of his leading General. "I found I must select one man," said the President, "to command all the armies of the United States, and though it may be possible that Halleck is not a great General, I firmly believe he is the best I have got." He stated further, in the course of his conversation, that Mr. Stanton had no more to do with military movements than a clerk. He is like a Secretary of War in time of peace—he attends to all the duties of his office, but does not plan a campaign anywhere.

QUICK MOVEMENT.—General Pope when he marched through Culpepper, the Rappahannock [illegible] of the enemy's approach about [illegible] Monday, and in three hours had [illegible] his trains in motion. Before night on Tuesday he was across the Rappahannock, having in thirty-six hours moved his whole army and a train of five thousand wagons more than eighteen miles. Stonewall Jackson is accustomed to quick time, but this must have astonished him; at any rate it spoiled his plan. Pope's army was beyond his reach, strongly posted on the north bank of the Rappahannock, and guarding the fords and passes with such strength that the rebels dared not attempt to cross it.—Union.

LEXICON FOR REPUBLICAN DEMOCRATS.—An Eastern paper offers the following:

Southern Rights—Negroes.
Southern Chivalry—Mulattoes.
Democrat—A follower of Breckinridge.
[illegible]—[illegible] the arms of the United States, taking the forts, robbing the mints, stealing the Treasury and making war on the Government.
Unconstitutional—[illegible]
A Christian Minister [illegible] who prays for Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy [illegible] and Yancey.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.

The war between the Sze Yup and Hop Wo Chinese Companies is fairly commenced. This morning one Chinaman cut another on the head with a hatchet on Merchant street. The injury is fatal. Soon after another Chinaman was assaulted and desperately wounded. It is said that one faction have employed a company of men to destroy the other faction. Bloody times are anticipated.

Burnside, Hooker [illegible] Sedgwick, Richardson, and Dana were wounded, and Gen. Meagher was killed.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 1[illegible].—A gentleman who left the battle field at [illegible] Wednesday night says our forces occupy positions held by the enemy at the commencement of the battle [illegible] the rebels were driven back a mile and a half at all points except the extreme right, which they still held at the close of the day. McClellan regarded [illegible] result as a great victory, though not as a final one. The final result would depend on who got [illegible] reinforcements first. Our informant says nothing had been heard on the field of the capture of Longstreet, which was rumored. It was probably untrue.

Twenty thousand reinforcements were expected from Harrisburg yesterday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Tribune's correspondence, dated Frederick, Sept. 13th, says: The most liberal estimate of the rebel strength is 6[illegible],000, including 500 negroes. The enemy's rear guard fought obstinately, contesting every inch of ground. Nearly all the Marylanders, about 600 in number, who enlisted in the rebel army while in this vicinity have been taken prisoners.

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, Sept. 14.—From Western Virginia we have the following:

A column of the enemy [illegible] attacked two regiments [illegible] at Fayette on Wednesday. A desperate fight continued till dark. Our forces succeeded in cutting their way out with the loss of 100 killed and wounded. In the meantime another column of the enemy [illegible] Gauley Bridge [illegible] Lewisburg road, and succeeded in cutting off the Forty-sixth Ohio Regiment with two companies of the Second Virginia Cavalry, who were on [illegible] there. The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other paper published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

CONCERT FOR BENEFIT OF U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION.—A grand instrumental and vocal concert will be given at the Willamette Theatre on Friday night next, the proceeds of which will be given to the fund of the U. S. Sanitary Commission. The proprietor of the theatre has kindly tendered the free use of the building, and all the musical talent in the city will appear. It will be the grandest concert ever given in Oregon. Among those who have generously volunteered to appear, are: Prof. Sedluk and band, Designe's Cornet band, Miss Virginia [illegible], Mr. Yost, Prof. Sinclair, and the [illegible]'s brothers. This is a commendable [illegible] and our citizens will not fail to attend in large numbers.

[illegible]—It is exceedingly funny to see a [illegible] man talking Chinook to that Indian [illegible] in front of a segar store on Front street yesterday. The poor fellow was full of stagger-juice that he mistook the image for a real live klootchman, and as she stood, leaning against a post, he made use of what little jargon he could command, trying to induce a reply from the [illegible]. But none came, she was as dumb as poor Cæsar's wounds. Weary of this, he staggered round the corner, remarking, as he went: "That dern [illegible] puttin' on a good many airs!" He was laboring under a hallucination.

TELEGRAPH DISPATCH.—By some unaccountable means we did not receive our regular dispatch last evening, and consequently could issue no extra. The other papers did receive dispatches. There is something wrong somewhere, and we intend to [illegible] the matter. We pay promptly for [illegible], and there is no apparent reason why we should not get it. Somebody is at fault. Important and startling news is looked for, and we hope that we will get our dispatches as usual, so as to be able to put out an extra. Our news of this morning is taken from [illegible] of last evening.

NO COUNCIL.—As a quorum was not present last evening, the Common Council had no meeting.

STATE FAIR.—We learn that several of our citizens are making preparations to take their [illegible] up to the State Fair next week. A great many will go up from this city. It is thought that between ten and twelve thousand people will be in attendance.

CLOSED.—Our Israelite citizens began their [illegible] last evening by closing their stores. Services were held at the Synagogue.

[illegible]'S COURT.—Nothing up in this [illegible] yesterday. Our city is becoming very quiet.

[illegible]—The Julia brought down quite a number of emigrants last night—most of them from "Knox county, Illinois." No news of importance from Columbia.

ENLARGED.—The daily and weekly [illegible] are to be enlarged. So says the [illegible] of that paper.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Thos. Taylor, who was injured by falling down stairs last [illegible] evening, is recovering.

NEEDS REPAIRING.—We call the attention of the [illegible] Street Commissioner to the condition of the side-walk on First, between [illegible] and Mill streets. It needs repairing badly. There are many other places we could mention, where the streets and side-walks are in wretched condition. Property owners should have all such places in good repair before the approach of the winter season.

FRUIT.—We are now in the midst of the fruit season. Our city is full of apples, pears, peaches, &c., and plums, of every variety and of the finest quality.

TO SALEM.—C. W. Savage will run a hack to the Fair Grounds at Salem, from this city, leaving the Union stable, corner of First and Yamhill streets, at five o'clock on Tuesday morning. Persons wishing to engage seats should make early application.

ARRIVED.—The bark H. W. Almy, Flavel, from San Francisco with six hundred tons of freight, arrived last night, in tow of [illegible].

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark Samuel [illegible] Williams, captain, arrived at San Francisco on the 15th inst., five days from the [illegible] river.

Foreign News.

An extraordinary Council of Ministers was held at Turin to take Garribaldi's case into consideration. The opinion that prevailed was that justice should take its course. Two ministers were in favor of granting an amnesty.

It is reported that at the late Council of [illegible] on Italian affairs it was decided that the statu quo should be maintained in Rome for some time to come.

The third division of the expedition to Mexico, consisting of three steamers left Toulon on the 3d.

The Madrid official gazette announces that in consequence of explanations given by [illegible] to Napoleon, all differences of opinion between France and Spain have ceased.

An Italian outbreak is feared, unless Rome is evacuated by the French.

The London Morning Post asserts that the Emperor is determined to bring about a solution of the Roman question, and thinks that the French army at Rome will be withdrawn before the present year.

La France argues against total abandonment and endeavors to demonstrate the possibility of Italy definitely constituting her [illegible] without Rome for her Capital.

There was a rumor that Victor Emanuel [illegible] a personal visit to Garibaldi [illegible], and it was anticipated that as the marriage of his daughter with the King of Portugal would take place on the 10th, [illegible] will take that opportunity to exercise the prerogative of mercy and pardon Garibaldi.

DR. BAKER'S

is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it in the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, and externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply Dr. B.'s Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a chill, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

SCHOOL DAYS

Like bees that hum among the flowers
Still w[illegible] with [illegible] low
The heart goes humming among the hours
[illegible] school days know

The school house [illegible] grand
The path that le[illegible] there
Among the pleasant [illegible] stand
A well beloved pair

Through field, or lane, or crowded mart
Whichever way we go
The old school road is [illegible] heart
About the [illegible] we know

How we retrace with memory's eye
The path by Time [illegible] grown
Where [illegible] the [illegible] footprints lie,
Trace [illegible] our own?

My heart leaps up [illegible] to this day
[illegible] hear that deafening shout
That heralds [illegible] away
The moment [illegible] school [illegible]

My vanished youth [illegible] up Time's track
I am a school girl still
Playing behind the teacher's back
And coasting down the hill

My schoolmates—Memory's magic wand
Brings every [illegible] to mind
With all those pleasant teachers—and
The few we thought unkind

The school room with its lively hum,
The "mark" we used to toe
The "meteor" and "velvet sum"
"That screw" and [illegible]

The verb "to love," with roguish wink
We used to conjugate—
The dark-eyed boy and blushing minx
Who o'er it sealed their fate—

The funny things that made us choke
To smother down our glee,
That scarcely would a smile provoke
When we to smile are free

(Some teachers smile themselves I know,
I've seen them raise a book
Above their lips, for fear they'd show
How tickled they did look!)

But here I'll pause, a mile of rhymes
Would not suffice to tell
The old, new story of those times
Where Memory loves to dwell

The Action of Salt and Saltpetre on Meat.

The following interesting account of the action of salt and saltpetre on meat will doubtless be new to most of our readers

The manner in which salt operates in its preservative functions is obvious Salt, by its strong affinity, in the first place, extracts the juices from the substance of meat in sufficient quantity to form a saturated solution with the water contained in the juice, and the meat then absorbs the saturated brine in the place of the juice extracted by the salt in the first place Thus, matter incapable of putrefaction takes the place of that portion of the meat which is most perishable. Such, however, is not the only office of salt as a means of preserving meat. it also acts by its astringency in contracting the fibres of the muscles, and so excludes the action of air on the interior of the substance of the meat The last mentioned operation of salt as an antiseptic is evinced by the diminution of the volume of meat to which it is applied

The astringent action of saltpetre on meat is much greater than that of salt, and thereby renders the meat to which it is applied very hard; but in small quantities it considerably assists the antiseptic action of salt, and it also prevents the destruction of the florid (or red) color of the meat by the application of salt. From the foregoing statement of the mode of operation of salt and saltpetre on meat, it will be perceived that the application of these matters deteriorates, in a considerable degree, the nutritive, and, to some extent, the wholesome qualities of meat; and, therefore, in their use, the quantity applied should be as small as possibly consistent with the perfect preservation of the meat.

TO REMOVE CLINKERS FROM STOVES Some kinds of coal are liable to form clinkers which adhere to the firebrick lining of stoves, grates and furnaces, and become a source of great annoyance, as they cannot be removed by usual means without breaking the firebrick Persons who are thus annoyed will be glad to know that by putting a few oyster shells in the fire close to the clinkers, the latter will become so loose as to be readily removed without breaking the lining Scientific American
